No, it will not preclude firms from participating in future design work.

3. Would design support services (e.g., CEI, right-of-way, geotechnical investigations) be contracted through the selected consultant or through the county if the consultant is not responsible for design?

If necessary, the County may request consultant to perform design support services.

4. Is the county wanting the selected consultants to embed? Can you clarify what this role and time commitment would entail?

No.
