Questions received: (response in italics)

- 1. Can we request a date and time to visit the properties identified in the bid package?

Answer: Per the Bid Package the bidder is responsible for visiting sites prior to submitting a response. Please refer to Page 18, Line Item 34 for additional information.

- 2. Do we mow the strip of grass from the precinct on Brannon Circle to the entrance of Ronald Reagan at the South Precinct location?

Answer: No.

- 3. Do we maintain the kennels in the side and back where grass is located at the Animal Shelter? If so, how is access granted? Will there need to be a pre-determined schedule? Will the dogs be removed, and kennels cleaned prior to the service each week?

Answer: Yes, the awarded vendor will maintain the kennels in the side and back where grass is located. An employee from the Animal Shelter will grant the awarded vendor access. A pre-determined schedule will be preferred. The dogs will be removed. The kennels can be cleaned if we know in advance, but it will not be guaranteed.

- 4. Where is the property line to the right of the building where cars park in the grass at the Accountability Court location?

Answer: That area does not need service. It is on someone else's property.

5. Will there be an amendment to the contract once the new Juvenile Justice Center is completed?

Answer: Yes, once complete an amendment will be added.

6. The Senior Services location at 595 Dahlonega Hwy shares a detention pond with the Library; Does the price to maintain this pond need to be included in Section B, Section C or Sections B & C?

Answer: The price to maintain this pond should be included in Section B.

7. Does the monthly trim at the Molly View Tower consist of the small area around the tower or are the sewer/water treatment areas included that would require mowing?

Answer: Only cut, trim, and spray inside the fence.
